Q1: Your age

Your age?	Amount
11 ~ 20	57
21 ~ 30	19
31 ~ 40	53
41 ~ 50	159
51 ~ 60	117
61 ~ 70	20
71 ~ 80	3
Over 80	1
Under 10	9
Grand Total	438

Of the 438 questionnaires sent, most were responded by people between age 41 and 50, with 159 people. Ages between 51 and 60 ranked second, with 117 people.

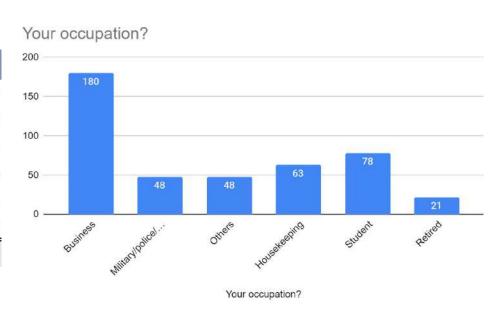

Q2: Your education

Your education?	Amount	You	ur education	?
Do not wish to answer	1	250
Graduates	210	200				210
High school	51	150					2. 2
Masters	132	100					132
PhD	12	50
Under middle school	32	0	1	12	32			51
Grand Total	438	0 -	Do not wish to answer	PhD	Under middle school	Graduates	Masters	High school
					Your edu	ucation?

A total of 438 questionnaires were collected, and most respondents have a bachelor degree, with 210 people, while 132 people have a masters degree. 83 respondents graduated high school or middle school.

Q3: Your occupation

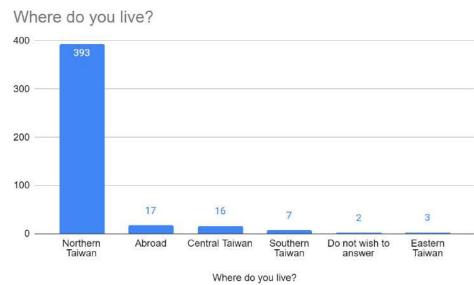

Your occupation?	Amount
Business	180
Housekeeping	63
Military/police/public service/teacher	48
Others	48
Retired	21
Student	78
Grand Total	438

Of 438 questionnaires received, most respondents engage a career related to business, with 180 people. The second most was students, with 73 people, others focus on housekeeping.

Q4: Where do you live?

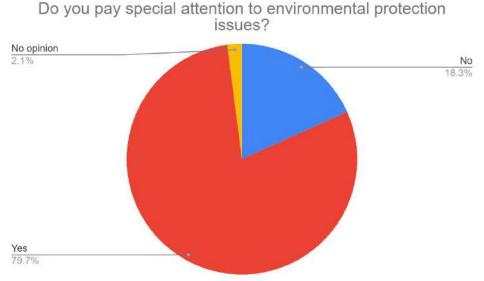

Where do you live?	Amount	Whe
Abroad	17	400 —
Central Taiwan	16	300 —
Do not wish to answer	2	200 —
Eastern Taiwan	3
Northern Taiwan	393	100 —
Southern Taiwan	7	0 —
Grand Total	438

Almost all respondents live in northern Taiwan, but we also received questionnaires from respondents living in central and southern Taiwan, even abroad.

Q5: Do you pay special attention to environmental protection issues?

Grand Total	438
Yes	349
No opinion	9
No	80
Pay attention to environmental issues?	Amount

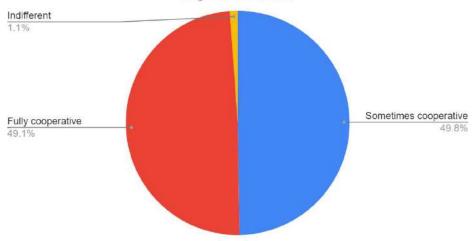

Most respondents reported that they often take notice of the environmental crisis, but there are still about 20 percent of respondents that do not actively follow the issue, and there are even 9 people who have absolutely no connection and do not understand the importance.

Q6: Do you agree with the environmental protection actions advocated by the government, such as bringing your own reusable cups and stopping the use of single-use utensils?

Grand Total	438
Sometimes cooperative	218
Indifferent	5
Fully cooperative	215
Agree with government advocations?	Amount

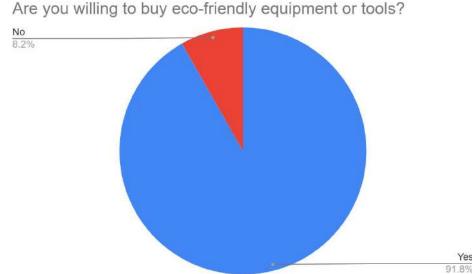

Do you agree with the environmental protection actions advocated by the government, such as bringing your own reusable cups and stopping the use of single-use utensils?

Most respondents reported that they often take notice of the environmental crisis, but there are still about 20 percent of respondents that do not actively follow the problem, and there are even 9 people who have absolutely no connection and do not understand the importance.

Q7: Are you willing to buy eco-friendly equipment or tools?

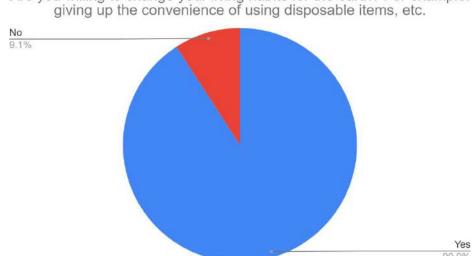

Over 90 percent of respondents are willing to buy environmentally friendly products while about 8 percent of respondents prefer convenient one-time products.

Q8: Are you willing to change your living habits for the earth? For example: giving up the convenience of using Are you willing to change your living habits for the earth? For example:

disposable items, etc.

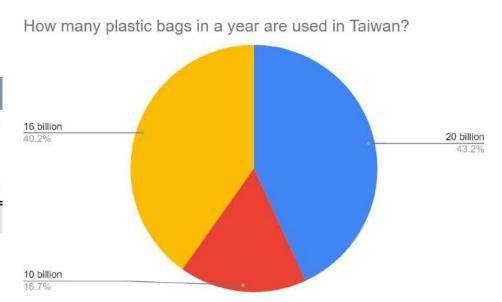

Willing to change your habits?	Amount
No	40
Yes	398
Grand Total	438

Most respondents are willing to give up habits that are not environmentally friendly in spite of inconvenience. However, there are still about 9 percent of the respondents that would rather continue their original habits.

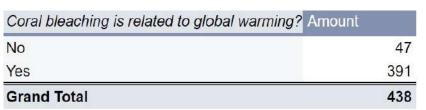

Q9: How many plastic bags in a year are used in Taiwan?

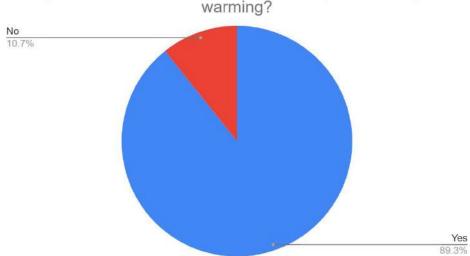

How many plastic bags used?	Amount
10 billion	73
16 billion	176
20 billion	189
Grand Total	438

Most people assume that there are about 20 billion plastic bags used per year, although only about 16 billion are used. This shows that people usually assumes the worst when it comes to the severity of environmental crises.

Q10: Do you know that coral bleaching is directly related to global warming?

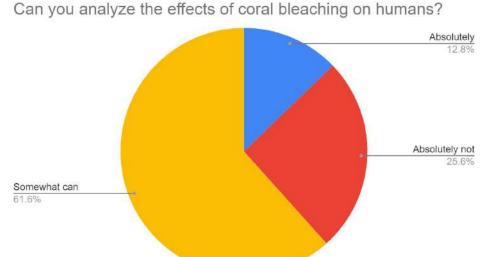

Do you know that coral bleaching is directly related to global

About 89 percent of the respondents know that coral bleaching is directly related to climate change, yet as much as 11 percent do not.

Q11: Can you analyze the effects of coral bleaching on humans?

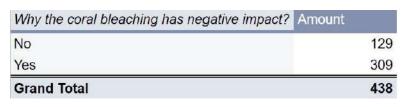

Grand Total	438
Somewhat can	270
Absolutely not	112
Absolutely	56
Analyze the effects of coral bleaching	ng? Amount

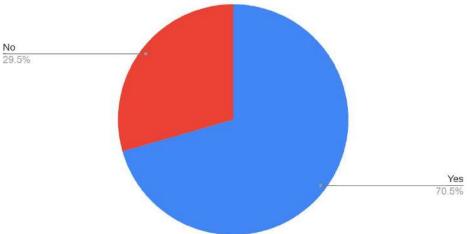

About a total of 87 percent of respondents cannot completely describe the effects of coral bleaching on humans, possibly due to the complexity of the problem, or simply the lack of proper education.

Q12: Do you know why the massive bleaching of corals has an extremely negative impact on the ecology?

Do you know why the massive bleaching of corals has an extremely negative impact on the ecology?

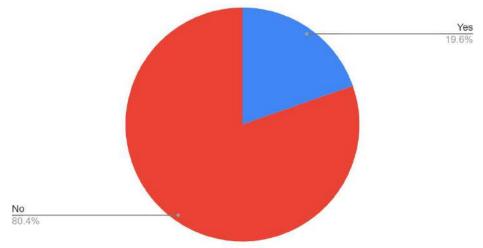

Roughly 30 percent of the respondents have no idea why coral bleaching negatively impacts the ecosystem. This shows that the mass public should given more information and better education about the environmental crisis.

Q13: In your opinion, do you think most governments are dealing with the pollution coral reefs or climate change as a whole effectively?

Most governments are effective?	Amount
No	352
Yes	86
Grand Total	438

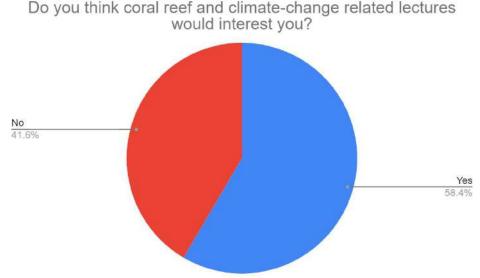

Over 80 percent of the respondents think that governments have not done a great job solving the problem of coral bleaching and climate change in general. This shows that the public does not trust the government to implement regulations and other policies that are related to increasing environmental friendliness.

Q14: Do you think coral reef and climate-change related lectures would interest you?

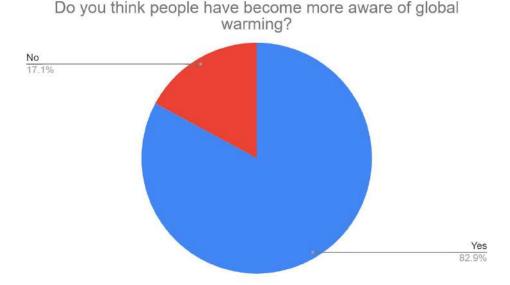

Grand Total	438
Yes	256
No	182
Coral reef related lectures interest you	? Amount

Less than 60 percent of the participants are interested in lectures about coral bleaching and climate change. Hence, the government must use other methods to introduce and raise awareness of the problem.

Q15: Do you think people have become more aware of global warming?

Grand Total	438
Yes	363
No	75
People are aware?	Amount

Approximately 80 percents of participants believe that more people are acquainted to the problem of climate change recently, but about 17 percent still think that people do not understand this problem enough.